Dear Mr. Glover,

Your favor of the 2nd inst. was duly received. On Tuesday I called on Mr. Provost to see what decision had been taken in reference to the Courbet - The greater number of the Committee being out of town Mr Provost said that it was impossible to get them together until Thursday when he would positively give me an answer - On Thursday afternoon Mr Provost informed me by letter that it had been decided to keep the Courbet - I have just seen him & the picture is to be presented to the "Louvre". The enclosed article explains the whole matter - I will telegraph you on board the "Etruria" that the "Courbet goes Louvre

my exact address is Knoedler Paris

I regret exceedingly at not having been successful in securing this fine work for the American Art Gallery: permit me to say that your interests have not been neglected: there were two offers made by different parties who were willing to take the picture at a much higher price but Mr Provost had agreed to give you the picture were it not presented to the Louvre and had it not been subscribed for it would have been yours at the price at which it was sold for at the Secretan sale. Will you kindly ask Mr McGraw if he thinks it worth my while to send you the fine Dupre you both saw here, also a very fine important Daubigny which I have recently bought. They could be sent in bond. If approved of by the Committee the duties would be saved to your Gallery - With kindest regards to both believe me very truly yours

Dear Sir:

May I trouble You for an accurate, technical description of Mr. Bradley's picture recently sent to Dr. Hammond's Sanitarium? I want to have it insured.

When I saw the picture at the Gallery, there was a card on it, stating when and by whom it was painted. This I should like to have also, if it has not been destroyed.

Yours truly
